LUKE EDWARD HALL

ABOUT CHATEAU ORLANDO Founded between London and Milan in February 2022 and creatively helmed by the English artist and designer Luke Edward Hall, Chateau Orlando is a new brand for the person and home. Chateau Orlando produces genderless collections and aims to blur the boundaries between fashion and interiors. At Chateau Orlando they celebrate the joy of living life and doing it well, with vigour, authenticity and Romantic imagination. They champion curiosity, colour and optimism. Known for an output that extends across art, interior and product design, fashion and writing, Luke weaves together an eclectic mix of influences: art history and nature, legends and literature, fantasy and folklore, music and mythology. Much of what Luke attempts to evoke in his work is a sense and spirit of time and place, one that relates to his experiences but takes on an otherworldly aura in memory... Chateau Orlando is powered by Wemanage. They manufacture our products responsibly in the Veneto region of Italy.
